It is a day to pay honor to all those who gave their lives to the cause of freedom. Although it began in 1868 three years after the Civil War as Decoration Day to honor all soldiers from both the north and the south who died in that war. We remember all those who died in the Revolution to the wars of today. Many lives were lost so that we can live as we choose. To live in a free land to be the people God intended us to be. Many of us may know someone who died in war. Brother, fathers, uncles and friends. Many came back not exactly as they left missing arms or legs. This is a solemn day. We gather to honor them. Let us take time from our picnics and parties to think of them and say thank you.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Michele Elliot, Bridgette Roth, Christi Duff, Nancy, Kyle.
