WHO AM I?: This is the question that Jesus puts to the Disciples. He knew the answer, but He needed to hear it from them and us. They give many answers perhaps as we might give as to Who Jesus is. I myself have heard many answers, one person told me that Jesus was a glorified angel. The answer is our profession of faith, that He is the Christ the Son of the Living God. Although it is not said, in this part of the Gospel, we know that is the key to heaven. Also, that Jesus had to suffer and die so that we could have the key. The question to the disciples is the same question to us, "Who do you say Jesus is?"
