THE END TIMES: The Gospel today gives us some unsettling images. It tells us of the end times when the earth will be destroyed. But, the end is not the end. It will be the beginning of the Kingdom of God. When all will be made new. It will be frightening for a time. But, all will be made new. The chosen will rise and live. The angels will come and gather all who belong to Christ. We pray that we will be among the chosen. Those who are not will be condemned. The holy will rise to the Kingdom. We pray we will be among the chosen to live with the Father forever. The prophet Daniel also speaks of this. Where will you stand? We believe that the Father will gather us into the Kingdom. Next Sunday is the Solemnity of Christ the King. The last Sunday of the year. We will then begin the new Church year. Have you made Christ the King of your life? Does He reign in your heart?
