FULILLED IN YOUR HEARING: At the Synagogue Jesus comes and reads from the Book of Isaiah the Prophet. St. Luke writes his account of the Gospel for a man named Theophilus who is believed to be a bishop of the early Church. Theophilus means “friend of God.” We also know that Luke also spoke with our Blessed Mother about the things which Jesus did. It is thought at Luke carved the image of Our Lady of Częstochowa on the table. St. Luke is also the author of the Book of Acts. Jesus reads the lesson which pertains to Him. He tells everyone that what is written is fulfilled. Jesus will do what the prophet wrote. He will do this by going about preaching and healing and dying for the sins of man. The people in the Synagogue were stunned. As we will read next Sunday, they asked who this person was. Many praised Him for saying these things. Jesus begins to teach with authority this got the attention of many. All this has been fulfilled in our hearing. Each time we hear the Word of God or read it ought to inspire us to follow Jesus to listen to Him and believe.
